

Painting with Pizazz – Oils for the Developing Painter

Instructor: Sue Pope @ 206-364-9395 or email: sbpope@comcast.net

Class will study composition, expression, and color in this course designed to introduce beginners and intermediate painters to oil painting. As you progress from a basic understanding of the medium toward more complex subject matter and methods, you'll be guided and encouraged via individualized instruction to cultivate your own style and vision. Previous drawing experience recommended but not required.

Supplies List for Oil Painting

Required Oil Paint Colors:

*(Do not buy colors with the name "Hue", ie: Cobalt Hue, Alizarin Hue as they are made with less pigment and will not mix as true)

Alizarin Crimson
Burnt Sienna or Terra Rosa
Cadmium Red light
Phthalocyanine (Phalo) Blue, or Prussian Blue, or Cobalt Blue
Ultramarine Blue
Viridian Green,
Titanium White, large size
Yellow Ochre
Cadmium Yellow Deep
Cadmium Yellow Pale (or Lemon)
Lamp Black

*Optional:, Dioxanine Purple, Cadmium Orange, Thalo Green

Recommended Bristle Paint Brushes:

One really big bristle brush, 1" wide, either flat or filbert (#12 or 14) or you could buy a small house painting brush with very soft bristles

At least one each: # 6, & 8 Filbert or Flat

Two soft hair brushes ½" (or 12mm wide) and one round, pointed brush about 1/8" or (3-5mm)

Pre-stretched Canvas and/or Canvas Boards:

- (1) 11" x 14" (or larger) canvas board or pre-stretched canvas for first day of class (more will be needed throughout the duration of course.

Miscellaneous:

- (1) Odorless mineral spirits
- (2) Palette knife (metal)
- (3) Empty, clean glass jar with lid (a wide-mouth jar for wider brushes)
- (4) Large size paper palette pad (for paint mixing)
- (5) Liquin (painting medium)

*You can buy paint at: University Book Store, Dakota Art, Daniel Smith, Aaron Brothers, or Utrecht Art Stores. If you live in the North end of Seattle try Dakota Art on 63rd and Roosevelt. They will give you 10% off if you tell them you are a student. You may contact the instructor, Sue Pope at sbpope@comcast.net or 206-364-9395 if you have any questions.