Financial Responsibility

All international applicants are required to show proof of financial support to live and study in the US. This includes sufficient funds available to pay for all necessary expenses and tuition for the time you are studying in the US. The sources of these funds will continue through the duration of your study at North. This section must be completed and signed before admission. Please attach a bank statement (not more than 6 months old) with this application. Please visit North's website for current tuition fees: (<https://ip.northseattle.edu/costs>). I understand that I am not eligible to receive financial aid, such as grants or loans. I also understand the tuition and fees refund policies as outlined on the website.

North will require an advance refundable tuition deposit of USD $4500 to ensure that applicants with sponsor's from these countries are financially prepared to study in the USA., and that applicants intend to enroll as international students. Following is a list of countries affected by this policy:

Congo, Gambia, Guinea-Conakry, Kenya, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Rwanda, Senegal, Somalia, Sudan and Tanzania.

Medical Insurance: Students will need to purchase medical insurance through North.
