

Integrated Studies Master Schedule Commitments and Priorities for 2016-17

Currently, the IS program offers up to seven 10-12 credit coordinated courses in the academic year; in this model two instructors teach side by side in the same classroom for the full two-course periods. Caps for these courses are 44.

Currently, the IS program schedules all proposed links once they've been approved by the committee.

Committed to the following course offerings across the year:

ENGL 101 in the fall in an I.S. offering (once a year)

ENG 102 in the winter OR spring in an I.S. offering (twice a year)

A U.S. Cultures designated course in Fall and either Winter OR Spring (twice a year)

Prioritizing the following course offerings across the year:

One Lab course in Spring in an I.S. offering (once a year)

One Global Studies designated course in the winter OR spring in an I.S. offering (once a year)

Committed to the following modes of delivery across the year:

One evening on-campus I.S.

One online I.S.

One evening hybrid I.S.