

What does my gift to the Education Fund support?

Your commitment to the Education Fund and North Seattle College helps provide scholarships to students who might not otherwise be able to attend college, support professional development opportunities for faculty and staff, purchase new technology and equipment, and keep North's programs current and relevant for today's students.

May I decide where my gift is directed?

Yes. Your gift to the Education Fund may be designated to support a specific pathway, initiative, scholarship, or support fund. You may also choose The North Star Fund, which provides for all areas of the college.

View our current Areas of Support by clicking here or contact us at nsceducationfund.org/contact to learn more.

Do you have a fee policy for gifts?

A five-percent administrative fee is taken on all non-endowed gifts to ensure that operational support continues to inspire, steward, and inform donors who invest in North Seattle College's core themes:

- Advancing Student Success
- Excelling in Teaching and Learning
- Building a Sustainable Community

For additional information about our fee policy, please contact us at nsceducationfund.org/contact.

What are my rights as a donor?

The NSC Education Fund maintains a Donor Bill of Rights, outlining our promise to our donors and major stakeholders. Please contact us at nsceducationfund.org/contact for the most recent version of the Donor Bill of Rights.
